

AMS Correspondence

American Legion

1922-1925

The AMERICAN LEGION Weekly

Official Publication of

The American Legion

And of The American Legion Auxiliary

THE LEGION PUBLISHING CORPORATION

Owned Exclusively by The American Legion

627 WEST 43rd STREET, NEW YORK

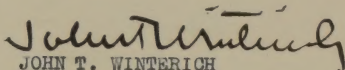

Editorial
Department

August twenty-third
1922

Gentlemen:

We are very glad to have a copy of "French Orders and Decorations" for inclusion in the Legion library, and thank you for your courtesy in sending it to us. We hope to be able to notice it soon in the pages of the magazine.

Very truly yours,

JOHN T. WINTERICH
Managing Editor

The American Numismatic Society,
Broadway at 156th St.,
New York City, N. Y.

JTW/CM

The AMERICAN LEGION Weekly

PUBLICATION OFFICES
INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA

January 23, 1925.

American Numismatic Society,
156th St. & Broadway,
New York City.

Gentlemen:

The American Legion Weekly, has established a book department for the purpose of distributing books pertaining to the World War to American Legion members. These books will be merchandised through the mediums of advertising in the Weekly and a catalogue.

The following books published by you have come to our attention as possible sellers, through this service.

"French Orders and Decorations."

Will you please quote us sale price (retail) and discount to us on the above, you to mail books bought, direct to purchaser and bill us once a month for all books ordered through you during month. Also if possible send us descriptive literature (one copy only) regarding each book and let us know if you have cuts available for use in catalogue.

An immediate response would be appreciated.

Very truly yours,

THE LEGION BOOK SERVICE

J. S. Luckett

Manager

P. S.

If by any chance you are not the proper party to deal with regarding the books mentioned in this letter, would you be so kind as to let us know who we should write regarding them.